News of Petersburg

Times-Dispatch Bureau.

5 Bollingbrook Street.

(Phone 1485).

Petersburg, Va., August 11.

The question of the mayorality is one that is interesting the people of Petersburg just now, and it is being pretty generally discussed. The people want a worthy successor of the late Mayor Cameron, and they are seeking among themselves for the man. But the City Council is to elect. There is no announced candidate for the office, and it is known that several citizens mentioned for the place will not allow their names to be presented before the Council, which only fills the vacancy temporarily—that is, until next year, when the people will elect.

Pine Peanut Crop.

The peanut crop in this section is reported to be in splendid condition, with promise of a generous yield. The season has been highly favorable for this crop, as it has been for tobacco. The annual sales of peanuts in Petersburg largely exceed $2,000,000, and they are growing each year.

Sunday Marriages.

Last night at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride, on Grove Avenue, Miss Annie May Totty and Sidney P. Floyd were married by the Rev. H. H. Martens, pastor of Grove Avenue.

GREATEST OF ALL USERS OF SUGAR

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, August 11.—The United States was placed to-day at the head of sugar-using nations in a report in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

Six billion, five hundred million pounds of sugar were imported during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913. This is 500,000,000 pounds in excess of importation for the fiscal year of 1912. Forecasts place consumption of this commodity for fiscal year 1913-14 at 8,000,000,000 pounds.

Of the sugar brought in during 1913, 4,317,444,042 pounds came from Cuba, 1,000,000,000 from Hawaii, 750,000,000 from Porto Rico, nearly 750,000,000 from the Philippines, and the rest from South America.

In value, however, the year's receipts of sugar fell nearly $20,000,000 below those of last year, despite the fact that the quantity received was nearly 500,000,000 pounds greater.

IRELAND CHIEF SPEAKER

Archbishop Addresses Assembled Catholics at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., August 11.—Archbishop John Ireland, before 200 dignitaries and 8,000 laymen of the Catholic Church, to-night concluded the second day's session of the twelfth annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies. In session here, with an address on "Americanism and Catholicism."

The vast audience sitting in the auditorium paid close attention to his speech of the patriotism of the American Catholics, and at the same time condemned those who accused the Catholics of lack of patriotism.

When the archbishop, accompanied by Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Messmer, of Milwaukee, took their places on the stage the audience rose and gave the dignitaries an appreciative reception. Archbishop Messmer presided and introduced the speaker. A chorus of 40 voices, the aggregate of the Catholic choirs of the city, rendered the musical program.

Cardinal Gibbons was the guest of honor at several functions held to-day, including receptions at the Milwaukee Press Club, the Knights of Columbus and a dinner given by former Judge Paul Carpenter.

FIRE ON BODY IN CASKET

Soldiers Commit Outrage in Church at Funeral of President Augustus of Haiti.

New York, August 11.—The soldiers presenting arms when ordered to do so, the military escort to the body of President Augustus of Haiti, to-day, aimed their rifles at the casket and riddled it with bullets, according to Marfield Kemp, of Huntington, Ind., a young engineer employed by the National Railroad of Haiti, who reached here from Port-au-Prince to-day. The shooting occurred in the cathedral of St. Mary, Mr. Kemp said, at the conclusion of a funeral service of great intimacy and in the presence of hundreds of persons. Mr. Kemp was one of a party of Americans, he said, who attended the funeral.

"The casket occupied a place in the center aisle," Mr. Kemp said, "and the twenty-four soldiers stood two lines on each side. At the blessing they were ordered to present arms. Instead they fired several rounds into the body. The casket was thrown into an uproar and the funeral through fled in panic. This outrage was one of many disorders occurring in Port-au-Prince on the day of the funeral, Mr. Kemp said. He added that President Augustus had made many political enemies, and that it was generally reported, but without confirmation, that he had been poisoned.

Equestrians Visit Wilson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, August 11.—Three citizens of the State of Washington, who have traveled over 4,000 miles on horseback, to-day called upon President Wilson. They are George Beck, C. Beck and R. G. Rayne, ranchmen here for a visit during the course of a 20,000-mile ride through the United States. From Washington the trio of equestrians will again head West, intending to bring up at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915.

Fire Destroys Embassy.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]

Constantinople, August 11.—The French embassy, a picturesque old Turkish building, was entirely destroyed by fire late to-night. Ambassador and Mrs. Bompard narrowly escaped with their lives. All their effects were lost in the fire.

STATE SOLDIERS ARE ON WAY HOME

Troops Withdrawn and Their Places Taken at Mines by Deputies.

Calumet, Mich., August 11.—Some time to-night 1,000 men, including Batteries A and B, of the 2,500 State troops which have occupied the copper mining district of Northern Michigan, will be on their way home. It is expected, and their places will be filled by armed deputies. The sheriff has recruited his forces up to about 1,600, and believes he will be able to take care of the strike situation, unless there comes a severe clash between strikers and the men returning to work.

The strikers renewed their pickets to-day around the Calumet and Hecla and the Quincy mines, where it was reported work was to be started, but only pump men and shaft men were sent underground, and the pickets did not try to stop them. An attempt will be made to resume actual mining to-morrow, it was stated to-day.

Judge Alfred Murphy, of the Wayne County Circuit Court, of Detroit, arrived to-day as special representative of Governor Ferris. Judge Murphy called on both the Western Federation of Miners' officials and Manager McNaughton, of the Calumet and Hecla. He informed them he was here to investigate the strike situation for the Governor and effect a settlement if possible, but as yet he has made no proposition. He will offer, probably to-morrow, his services as mediator. He was assured of co-operation by the federation in any effort he might make to end the strike.

Up to to-night, it was stated that 2,931 of the Calumet and Hecla employees had signed to return to work. This is nearly one-third of the company's entire force of surface and underground employees. The resumption of some mining work is planned before the end of the week.

AMERICAN IS SENTENCED

Manager of Korean Mines Given Eighteen Months for Manslaughter.

Seoul, Korea, August 11.—James Mason, the American manager of the gold mines at In-San, in Northern Korea, was sentenced to-day to eighteen months' penal servitude on a charge of manslaughter for killing a Chinese mine employee, while in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Mason committed a criminal assault on their twelve-year-old daughter.

In his defense to-day Mason pleaded the "unwritten law," but was convicted of an assault and the sentence was entered at once.

Sixty-five Americans are employed in the In-San mines, and are among the most productive in Korea.

NO CONSOLATION GIVEN DEMOCRATS

an assurance undoubtedly would lead to earlier action on the tariff.

Certain suggestions also have been made as to possible amendments of tariff-making, but they are of agricultural rates, but minority members were not disposed to bargain, because they could receive no assurances of conference action on amendments of this character.

The informal negotiations gave rise to a rumor that currency legislation would not be insisted upon at the special session, but this was declared to be entirely without foundation in so far as the views of the President and a majority of the Democratic Senators are concerned.

Meanwhile, consideration of the bill drags on. To-day, little progress was made, several paragraphs of the metal schedule being under discussion, chiefly lead and cast iron pipe. Cast iron pipe, which the Senate Finance Committee transferred to the free list, striking out the House rate of 12 per cent, was discussed by Senator Clarke, of Arkansas, who said the subject was so controlled by combinations that unfair prices were artificially maintained. He urged that a free market be given to foreign manufacturers to break up the controlling American combination. Senator Hollis, of New Hampshire, Democrat, criticized the cotton manufacturers of New England in a tariff speech, in which he declared that New England had not been discriminated against. He charged as false the charge that tariff reduction would ruin the textile industry there.

The cotton manufacturers have taken the highest protection and paid pauper wages," he said. "They are compelled by statute to work humane hours and conduct their business on humane lines, and not one of them voluntarily reduced the hours of labor. They seek to control the government, to prevent legislation and escape just tax, to control the police and inferior courts and secure military aid for the suppression of strikes. They secure special commodity rates for their goods and other preferences from railroads. They oppose the election of Democrats by coercing their employees, and they make inordinate profits at present tariff rates. It is a question whether one side in the development of this kind is best for any community.

"Thousands of self-operative work for $7 a week and live under wretched conditions; the death rate in our New England mill cities is the highest in the United States. It is certain that the cotton industry of New England should not receive any special consideration in the pending bill, due to past conduct.

"In a recent contest in New England for United States Senator certain Democratic members of the Legislature chanced to be employees of a certain great textile corporation. They were waited upon at their homes and 'requested' not to vote for the caucus candidate. They were not threatened with discharge, but the implication was very plain. What sort of a claim have men like this to make at the hands of a Democratic Congress?"

Though Senator Hollis did not say so, the reference was taken by other Senators to be the recent New Hampshire contest, in which he was elected after a deadlock.

Because of absence of many Senators, action on important paragraphs in the metal schedule were passed over. Lead rates were taken up. Senator Thomas, of Colorado, said that the American Smelting and Refining Company controlled the lead market and the majority of the lead mines, and that the company was giving any duty except such as was necessary for revenue purposes to the product controlled by that concern. Senator Smoot replied that the American Smelting and Refining Company did not own any of the lead mines of Utah, and that it was the policy of that concern not to own the mines. The ore, Senator Thomas said, had to be sold through the American company, however, because it controlled the market.

"My prediction is, however," said Senator Thomas, "that when the American Smelting and Refining Company finds it necessary to take over the Utah mines it will do so."

What the Contest Is

It consists of 77 pictures, one published each day in this paper, and each picture representing the title of a book. You simply tell what book titles each picture represents, and when all 77 have been published, send in your set of answers. You will find this an easy, simple game, and the rewards are large. And you get all the pictures published to date FREE with the Contest Catalogue. Start to-day. You can win.

Cut Out and Save for Future Use

HERE ARE THE RULES.

The contest is open to all readers of this paper. Only Times-Dispatch employees and members of their families are barred. Daily, for 77 days will be published in The Times-Dispatch a picture representing the title of a book, one each day. Beneath this picture will be a coupon to fill in with the name of the book and the author, together with the name and address of entrant.

Cut out the picture and coupon, filling in the book title and author's name, writing your name and address neatly and plainly in the place provided.

No restrictions are placed on the manner in which answers to pictures are secured. Each picture represents the title of one book only. If you are not certain of your solution you may send in one to ten answers to the picture. NO MORE THAN TEN ANSWERS WILL BE ACCEPTED TO A PICTURE. Incorrect answers will not count against contestant if correct answer is also given. And put one answer to each picture and coupon. Extra coupons must be secured and used for extra answers. All answers to each picture must be kept together in compiling your set.

Additional pictures and coupons may be obtained at The Times-Dispatch office, by mail or by person. Answers will not be accepted unless they are properly filled out on the coupons appearing beneath each picture. It is necessary that pictures be sent in with the answers in order that all answers may be uniform.

When you have all 77 answers, fasten them together and bring them or mail them in a neat flat package—not folded or rolled—to The Times-Dispatch office, addressed "BOOKLOVERS' CONTEST EDITOR." Prizes will be awarded contestants sending in the largest number of correct solutions. In the event of two or more persons having the same number of correct solutions, the person using the smallest number of extra coupons on the set of answers will be declared the winner. In the event of two or more persons having the same number of correct solutions, and using the same number of coupons, an equal interest in the prizes tied for will be given to each of the tying contestants, or the persons involved in the tie may choose any one of the lesser prizes.

More than one prize will not be awarded to any one family at one address, but each member of the family may enter the contest and submit a complete set.

Only one complete set (comprising not more than 10 answers to any one picture) of answers may be submitted by a contestant. Awards will be made strictly according to the merit of each separate list. The names of more than one person must not be written on any one coupon.

All answers will be considered on their merits. The first set filed will have no preference over the last set filed; provided only that answers must be filed within the time specified after the last picture has appeared.

The awards will be made by the Contest Editor and three well-known citizens whose names will be announced later.

The correct answers to the series of pictures will be filed with a local trust company or bank previous to the close of the contest.

Entry to the contest may be made at any time. All communications or letters of inquiry concerning the contest should be addressed to the Booklovers' Contest Editor, The Times-Dispatch.
